See you at the Races!!!!!!!

2004-6

QSAC West 2004

The Race Location for the September has been changed to Boulder City!!!!!!!!!!
I hope I said it loud enough for all of you to hear. The points are close and with only 2 races left a lot of the classes are yet to be decided.

The Banquet is still on at the Hacienda, it appears that the changes that are now projected for the hotel are a few years off, so everything should be fine this year. Tammy says : I have reserved 16 rooms (8 smoking / 8 non-smoking) at a rate of $59.00 each night. Please contact Tammy at 909-797-9525 if you would like to book a room and she will give you your confirmation # or call the Hacienda Hotel at 702-293-5000 and tell them you are with QSAC West.

Please Make your reservation soon Tammy went to a lot of trouble to get the Banquet set and get the rooms set up for us at this cheap rate. We would like to have a complete count by Oct 31st. The start time is 6:00pm.

Hacienda Hotel & Casino
Highway 93
Boulder City, Nv 89005
Phone 702-293-5000

What a great time in Idaho ! I heard everyone say last year, what a great time they had but until you go you have no idea. When Dave and I first got there Dave said " he will never drive that far again " I will just tell you now after we had such a great time lets just say Dave's ready to drive back next year. On the first day Mike entertained us with his building skills as he tried to build a over head loop using PVC pipe lets just say it looked like the golden gate bridge and was just as heavy you had to have been there. Lets get to the Go karting. Boy was that a blast it was an indoor track and those karts got around pretty good. Mike won both of his races but rumor is he was there everyday the week before practices. Oh and I can't forget Tony Evans from Arizona got black flag image that. The second day we went water rafting what an experience. It is so beautiful there we had just went a little ways down the River and so peaceful then the peacefulness was over. I didn't realize how cold the water was until our very own Matt Sloan lifted up his paddle and then splash us. From then on it was a very wet battle zone no more was left dry. I have to hand it to Ron Schoeb no one could believe the amount of water he could pull up from his paddle but he was a Navy Boy. We did have Ricky who is Troy's wife and Mr. Kenley Mike's dad decide to each grab on to a tree branch and go swimming but not by their choice. The best time of all for me was when the girls went and played pool. We were having so much fun that when finally realized we were the rowdiest group out of all the college kids. I guess good thing we were drinking they probable would of threw us out. Speaking of that a large group of us went to Chili and lets just say they won't forget us but not sure if they will let us back in. Well back to why we were there the races. It was great for all the guys to race with others drivers and test their skills. I wish I could remember the races but with not having to score I was having such a great time enjoying everyone company. When it came to giving out the trophies everyone was celebrating then when they called out Tony Evans name Jenny's (Mike Kenley's sister in-law) eyes widen and she started to step back then before you no it , it was a repeat of last year Tony went running after her to give her a big fat kiss thank goodness she had on her running shoes. It was enough having to score believe I know but then to have Tony running after you poor girl. What else can I say because there is so much more and some stories I had to leave out. This would be a perfect family vacation and Dave and I will be back and hope to see some of you there next year.

Mike you did it again WHAT a great time!!

HOT AUGUST NIGHTS

By Diana Weller-Ellwood

My husband and I had not been to a race since June. This gave me enough time to complete my re-hab and get enough rest to start this madness again. We really missed not going to the Boise Race. Everyone I talked to said they had a great time. Mike Kinley really makes sure everyone has a great time. These bums got to race, go tubing down the river, kart racing, bike riding, great food, etc, etc, etc. Now you know I'm not the type to start rumors, and maybe someone can clear this up for me, but I understand that Larry Cross had "dish pan" hands after a night out with the motley crew. And I also heard someone mention BLACK FLAG EVANS. Something about Tony Evans being jealous that someone else in our club was black-flagged last year, kart racing, I don't want to embarrass anyone by mentioning any names, right LANCE. My scoring sister Tammy Hart is writing an article about the Boise Race, I'm sure she will clear things up. I'm sure none of this is true, it's just hear say, right Tammy?????? Well, we didn't have a lot of cars at this Hot August Nights, but it was fun just the same. Good racing in all classes, except Grand Nationals. These guys were yelling at each other so much, you couldn't hear in the scoring booth. I think everyone was tired. GOOD JOB to the winners, Dave Hart in Open Wheel, who spanked Ron Bad Boy Schoeb, (did I say that out loud, ah geeeeeeesssss). I have to say, Troy Seymore raced in the open wheel class and did a great job, he was challenging Ron too. He drove that car like a pro. Rick Acosta in Novice, drove a very good race. He was relentless pounding away at Steve Edgar who was in the lead most of the race, but the car pooped out on him towards the end. But a big Thank You to Steve for announcing our Grand National Race. Sean McCrea in Sportsman drove a great race, coming up from the back to challenge Luke Jonas and Lance Cote, and in the end Sean took it home for the win. By the way, it was great to see Todd and Luke Jonas back racing this weekend. This is a Father & Son team that is awesome, both good competitors and people. And finally Jim "The Lip" Silvay, taking the win in a very crazy Grand National Race. I think Jim drove well because he was on the run from everyone else who was out to get him after his No Nonsense announcing. You see Jim is a great announcer, but he does tell it like he sees it, whether you want to hear it or not. Tammy and I LOVE IT. All in all it was a fun weekend. I didn't take any prozac and I only drank one beer. Yes, I was a bit crabby, but I'm sure if Ron goes to a good body shop, they will be able to get that scratch out of his truck. Love ya babe. My husband and I and Dave and Tammy had the pleasure of taking Ron's Grandson, Daniel "Bad Boy in Training" Schoeb out to dinner with us Friday night. This young man is definitely a Schoeb. He ordered chicken wings. He tasted the wings and politely asked for Tabasco sauce. I KIDYOU NOT. On top of the spicy wings he put TABASCO SAUCE. The four of us were sweating just watching him eat these things. He removed all the vegetables from his plate. When Tammy asked him if he was going to eat the veggies, he just said, "YUK, NO". This is a true Schoeb. You have to respect the kid for eating all those wings with all that tabasco sauce. Of course he was walking a little funny the rest of the evening. It must have helped him, he took 2nd in the main. Speaking of eating. Tom Hughes told me told me he has a bet, for money, with Dion Cross about who can lose the most weight by the next race. We asked him, how did you guys weigh each other? He said they didn't have a way of weighting each other they are just going to trust each other. I couldn't believe what I was hearing from Tom. I asked Tom, "would you trust a fox in your hen house?" We are talking about Dion and Money. I love Dion, but we are talking about money. Hell, I'm not sure I wouldn't fudge on that one. Oh well, easy come, easy go. Well, Tommy told me I had to limit it to one page this time, so, once again, thanks for listening and I'll see ya in Boulder City, in September. Yes, that's right, there will be no more races in Kingman. September's race has been moved to Boulder City. We will miss Lou and his great hospitality, but progress is taking over and houses are being built and Lou wants to retire and just have fun. Can't blame the man for that. Lou, we hope you will come and visit with us from time to time, thanks again for providing us with a great time and track. Take care, see ya in September.
